INTIMATIONS

The Primary Sunday School would like to say a big thank you to the congregation for the support they gave us by donating 75 Easter eggs. They were delivered to Ninewells on Monday and as per usual we were given a warm reception and thanked profusely for our generosity.

CONGREGATIONAL BOARD QUIZ: The new Congregational Board Quiz—"Man/Men" (all the answers contain either the word man or the word men) is available in the Airlie Street Hall on Sundays or from Lunans or Costcutters - usual price 50p.

CHRISTIAN AID WEEK MAY 20TH. We urgently need more collectors for this year's Christian Aid Week. Many of our collectors have "retired" and we are looking for youngish legs to take on this role. If you, or anyone in your family over 16 years of age, are willing to give this most worthwhile of causes your time, please contact Rona Nicolson 01828 632671.

FAMILY HISTORY PROJECT: Re-opens today. Thousands of records for baptisms, weddings, burials plus maps, newspapers etc. During the winter enquiries always welcome at fhp@alythparishchurch.org.uk or visit our Facebook page.

THE PRAYER GROUP meets on Thursday mornings at 10.30am in Burnside Court Lounge. Everyone is welcome. Please note that prayers for yourself or others can be left in the Prayer Bag on the information table at the back of the Hall. The Prayer Group will be pleased to pray for your needs and those of others.

CHOIR PRACTICE takes place on Friday evenings at 6.45pm. New choir members would be most welcome.
